

Data Dictionary

Variable Name	Description	Data Type
Name	Student name	Categorical
Gender	Gender of the student	Categorical
Age	Age of the student	Numeric
Sector	Field of study	Categorical
Co-op programs	Number of Co-op programs enrolled	Numeric
Internship	Number of internships completed	Numeric
Personal projects	Number of personal projects	Numeric
Institution name	Name of the institution	Categorical
Degree program	Academic program or major pursued by the student	Categorical
Certifications	List of certifications obtained	Categorical
Academic achievements	List of academic accomplishments	Categorical
Professional Title	Title or designation achieved professionally	Categorical
Work Experiences	List of work experiences	Categorical
Languages.	List of languages known	Categorical
Professional Achievements	Notable professional accomplishments	Categorical
Best jobs.	List of best jobs for the student	Categorical
Opportunities	Opportunities in the student's field	Categorical
Wages	Compensation or salary associated with work	Numeric

This data dictionary provides a clear overview of the variables, their types, measurement scales, and other relevant information. It serves as a reference guide for anyone working with the dataset, ensuring clarity and consistency in understanding the data's structure and content.

